The map displays the global distribution of the Portuguese language. Countries where Portuguese is an official language are highlighted in pink. These include Brazil, Portugal, and several countries in Africa (Angola, Mozambique, Guinea-Bissau, Cape Verde, and Equatorial Guinea). Other countries shown in pink are India and Macau. The map also labels various countries in North America, South America, Europe, and Africa, as well as major bodies of water like the Atlantic Ocean, Indian Ocean, and the Gulf of Mexico.
